Collect

God, our judge and saviour,
teach us to be open to your truth
and to trust in your love,
that we may live each day with confidence in the salvation which is given through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading : James 5.13-end

Are any among you suffering? They should pray. Are any cheerful? They should sing songs of praise. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise them up; and anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Therefore confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be healed.

The prayer of the righteous is powerful and effective. Elijah was a human being like us, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the earth yielded its harvest.

My brothers and sisters, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and is brought back by another, you should know that who-ever brings back a sinner from wandering will save the sinner's soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins.

Gospel : Mark 9. 38-50

John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." But Jesus said, "Do not stop him; for no one who does a deed of power in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. Whoever is not against us is for us. For truly I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you bear the name of Christ will by no means lose the reward.

"If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were hung around your neck and you were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life maimed than to have two hands and to go to hell, to the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter life lame than to have two feet and to be thrown into hell. And if your eye causes you to stumble, tear it out; it is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and to be thrown into hell, where their worm never dies, and the fire is never quenched.

"For everyone will be salted with fire. Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

An Introduction to The Examen

In the Examen, we review our recent past to find God and God's blessings in life. We also look back to find moments in the day when things didn't go so well. We give praise and thanksgiving for the blessed moments. We ask forgiveness and healing for the difficult and painful moments. Having reflected on this past day, we then turn to the day yet to come and ask God to show us the potential challenges and opportunities of tomorrow. The Examen is usually prayed towards the end of the day.

Give thanks – Think back over the day, for conversations, for people we've met, an unexpected kindness, a kind word

Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you as you

Say sorry -call to mind those moments that didn't go quite so well, for the flash of temper, irritation and frustration, for the words that bruised or hurt others

Ask for forgiveness for sins, and healing for mistakes: Remember that God loves you completely and desires you to be the best you.

Pray for tomorrow: the people you'll meet, the places you'll go, ask God to be with you, to direct your steps, to direct your heart, and to fill your words with love

Sleep Well
