

NOTICES

Team Sunday, 30th September - A reminder that everyone is invited to be part of our Team Sunday, beginning with our Team Service at Holy Trinity at 10am, and then continuing at Dilton Marsh Memorial Hall until 3.00pm for a programme led by Canon Keith Lamdin. To help with planning it will be helpful to know if you are coming. Please RSVP to Lynne in the Team Office if you are coming.

Stephen Greatwood, Landlord of the Prince of Wales pub in Dilton Marsh kindly hosted a fund raising event for Dilton Marsh Church including a free BBQ. He collected £325 which he donated to the village church. The Rev Rhona Floate was presented with the donations at the Pub's weekly Sunday Night quiz. Stephen was thanked for his kind and generous efforts which were much appreciated by Holy Trinity Church. He said wanted to continue to encourage the sense of community between the village, the church and the pub.

Holy Cross—Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity — 9th September 2018

Collect

Almighty God,

Who in the passion of your blessed Son Made an instrument of painful death to be for us the means of life and peace.:

Grant us so to glory in the cross of Christ that we may gladly suffer for his sake;

Who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

One God now and forever.

Amen

Readings set for patronal festival of Holy Cross Day

Reading: Philippians 2.6-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness.

And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Gospel: John 3. 13-17

No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that whoever believes in him may have eternal life

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

“Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him.

Today's lectionary readings are Reading: James 2. 1-10, [11-13], 14-17 Gospel: Mark 7. 24-end

An Introduction to The Examen

In the Examen, we review our recent past to find God and God's blessings in life. We also look back to find moments in the day when things didn't go so well. We give praise and thanksgiving for the blessed moments. We ask forgiveness and healing for the difficult and painful moments. Having reflected on this past day, we then turn to the day yet to come and ask God to show us the potential challenges and opportunities of tomorrow.
The Examen is usually prayed towards the end of the day.

Give thanks – Think back over the day, for conversations, for people we've met, an unexpected kindness, a kind word

Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you as you Say sorry -call to mind those moments that didn't go quite so well, for the flash of temper, irritation and frustration, for the words that bruised or hurt others

Ask for forgiveness for sins, and healing for mistakes: Remember that God loves you completely and desires you to be the best you.

Pray for tomorrow: the people you'll meet, the places you'll go, ask God to be with you, to direct your steps, to direct your heart, and to fill your words with love

Sleep Well
