Music at All Saints' Westbury

It is with deep regret that Brian Martin has resigned as our Director of Music, with immediate effect, due to a severe deterioration in his eyesight. He may occasionally play for weddings or funerals but playing for Sunday worship is no longer feasible for him. Please pray for Brian as he comes to terms with this life-changing development. PCC discussed the situation at its meeting this week and believe we need to consult widely on the way forward for our musical provision. In the short term we will be working hard to find cover for the major services through Advent, Christmas and beyond but organists are a rare breed and we may need to use other resources from time to time. Please pray for our choir and instrumentalists as they continue to serve us through their musical gifts. If you know of organists, pianists and others who may be able to help please sound them out and let Rhona, Ruth Hann or other PCC members know.

There is a collection being taken for Brian and a card to sign. If you wish to make a donation please see Ruth Hann or bring it to the team office by the 16th Dec. Thank you

Collect

Almighty God,
as your kingdom dawns,
turn us from the darkness of sin to the light of holiness,
that we may be ready to meet you in our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Reading : Jeremiah 33. 14-16

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: "The LORD is our righteousness."

Gospel : Luke 21: 25-36

There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in a cloud' with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

Then he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near.

So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

Advent Wreath

WEEK 1

People of God: Awake!

The day is coming soon when you shall see God face to face. Remember the ways and works of God.

God calls you out of darkness to walk in the light of his coming. You are God's children.

Lord, make us one as we walk with Christ today and forever. Amen

Visio divina

Visio divina shares roots with the ancient practice of lectio divina instead of words we use images.

Through the Advent period, there will be two suggested pictures which can be found online one traditional and one contemporary. Choose one that captivates you the most.

Look at the image and let your eyes stay with the very first thing that you see. Keep your attention on that one part of the image that first catches your eye. Try to keep your eyes from wandering to other parts of the picture. Breathe deeply and let yourself gaze at that part of the image for a minute or so.

Now, let your eyes gaze at the whole image. Take your time and look at every part of the image. See it all.

Reflect on the image for a minute or so.

Consider the following questions:

What emotions does this image evoke in you?

What does the image stir up in you, bring forth in you?

Does this image lead you into an attitude of prayer? If so, let these prayers take form in you. Write them down if you desire.

Offer your prayers to God in a final time of silence.
