The Baptism of Christ — The Second Sunday of Epiphany — 13th January 2019

Collect

Heavenly Father,
at the Jordan you revealed Jesus as your Son:
may we recognize him as our Lord and know ourselves to be your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

Reading: Isaiah 43. 1-7

But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you.

For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour. I give Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in exchange for you. Because you are precious in my sight, and honoured, and I love you, I give people in return for you, nations in exchange for your life.

Do not fear, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you; I will say to the north, "Give them up," and to the south, "Do not withhold; bring my sons from far away and my daughters from the end of the earth— everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made."

Gospel: Luke 3. 15-17, 21-22

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah.

John answered all of them by saying, "I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

Now when all the people were baptized, and when Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Contemplative walking

Walking as a contemplative practice. As all the other contemplative practices we have explored this practice invites us to use all our senses. In the same way of settling to down to Lectio divina you set your intention to walk in a contemplative way. The bible speaks of many journeys or walks where God or Jesus is present.

Preparation; Choose a route. Take water and a small note book.

On setting out before you leave your home or car sit quietly for a moment or two. Breathe slowly and imagine that as you cross the threshold or your front door or car door you are entering into a space that is filled with Gods presence

At the beginning of the walk say a small prayer offering the walk to God

Once on the walk you are fully present with God Allow your senses to absorb the sounds around you. If anything captures your attention take time to be still and ponder. A landscape, a flower or tree, the birds, if in town a piece of architecture or sometimes people. What is it that captures you? is it the colours the scent emotion.

Absorb everything...the ground beneath your feet the elements against your skin warmth cold wind rain. Mostly be fully present (no phone )

At the end give thanks to God for the time together It may be helpful to write in a journal any thoughts or other things that arise.

All readings are taken from NRSV
Readings for next week

Reading: Isaiah 62. 1-5
Gospel: John 2. 1-11
