Lent Appeal 2019

This Lent All Saints' are encouraging you to donate the money you would have spent on the luxuries you might be giving up for Lent to this year's appeal which will be split equally between the Heytesbury Deanery's support for the Chaima Christian Institute in Sudan and Church funds. You can donate online on the JustGiving Page <https://www.justgiving.com/campaign/estburylent19?>

or using the special gift aid envelopes at the welcome desk. Even if you are taking something up for Lent please consider giving to these worthwhile causes.

Collect

God of love,
passionate and strong,
tender and careful:
watch over us and hold us all the days of our life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading: Isaiah 55. 1-9

Ho, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and you that have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labour for that which does not satisfy? Listen carefully to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.
Incline your ear, and come to me; listen, so that you may live. I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.
See, I made him a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander for the peoples.
See, you shall call nations that you do not know, and nations that do not know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, for he has glorified you.
Seek the LORD while he may be found, call upon him while he is near;
Let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts; let them return to the LORD, that he may have mercy on them, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts

Gospel: Luke 13. 1-9

At that very time there were some present who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did."

Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

Don't give up for lent! A Psalm a day

Lent is a time when we all ponder what to give up or go without for 40 days.

This year why not pick up and commit to a type of prayerful practice for lent ?

Perhaps commit to 15 mins a day to be still with God.

In fact perhaps we will be giving up something...

A few moments of self and offering that small gift to God.

Each week we will print the suggested psalms in the lectionary for lent.

Spend a little time each day to read the verses, perhaps write them down, carry them in your heart for the day.

If anything shines out make a note in your prayer journal
