Many hands make light work.

More All Saints volunteers needed!

Thank you to those who have offered to take a turn operating the sound system – but they both already know how to drive it, and it would be great to share the task out with some new blood! It is very easy when you've been shown, and it makes a valuable contribution to our worship. You aren't committing yourself just by talking about it! Please contact Andrew Otto (858357) or talk to a sidesperson.

Sidespersons

We are short of people on the rota for Sides-people. The more people we have, the fewer times you will need to do it! We would particularly welcome young people to support this important ministry.

Trinity Sunday — 16th June 2019

Collect

Holy God, faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalm: 8

O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.
Out of the mouths of babes and infants you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.
When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars that you have established; what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them?
Yet you have made them a little lower than God, and crowned them with glory and honour.
You have given them dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under their feet, all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
O LORD, our Sovereign, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Reading: Romans 5. 1-5

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God.

And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel: John 16. 12-15

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come.

He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Community and hospitality
Over the last month I have been on the resident team at the Northumbria community retreat centre.
On a Thursday our guests leave and we begin to prepare for new guests arriving
It's a busy time, getting folk on the train, saying goodbyes, giving hugs and then the peace and silence of the empty space.
Then off to the laundry to begin the epic washing task of laundering the sheets. We do this ourselves. We all rather like ironing the pillowcases, it's a quiet warm place in the winter and in the summer we can put it on the line and have the door wide open.
Justin Welby said he enjoys praying whilst ironing so we are in great company!

Below is a prayer we have on the wall in the laundry I hope you like it.

All readings are taken from NRSV
Readings for next week
Psalm: 42-43
Reading: Galatians 3. 23-29
Gospel: Luke 15. 1-2,11-32
