Collect

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Psalm: 82

God presides in the great assembly; he renders judgment among the "gods": "How long will you defend the unjust and show partiality to the wicked?

Defend the weak and the fatherless; uphold the cause of the poor and the oppressed.

Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked. "The 'gods' know nothing, they understand nothing. They walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken. "I said, 'You are "gods"; you are all sons of the Most High.' But you will die like mere mortals; you will fall like every other ruler."

Rise up, O God, judge the earth, for all the nations are your inheritance

Reading: 1 Peter 4: 7-11

The end of all things is near; therefore be serious and discipline yourselves for the sake of your prayers.

Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins. Be hospitable to one another without complaining. Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gift each of you has received. Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel: Mark 9: 33-37

Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

Gardening is a large part of life here

We grow as much fruit and veg as possible and we make vast amounts of jam and chutney.

We have a walled garden which contains a labyrinth, it is rather beautiful it's made of flowers and grasses it changes throughout the seasons.

It's a very ancient way of prayer and contemplation people come on retreat and walk the labyrinth to find stillness go deeper into stillness.

Below is a finger labyrinth

The blob marks the entrance as with all

Our contemplative practices set aside a time to be full present

Take some deep breaths and when you feel ready begin to travel on the inward journey, be attentive to your thoughts what emotions rise are there any thoughts or feelings for you to attend to.

Once in the Center just be still for a while on the outward journey do the same.

This is a super quick version of labyrinth walking have a look online at better recourses.
